FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 1688 – SB 1884

March 23, 2011

SUMMARY OF BILL: Revokes outgoing mail privileges of an inmate convicted of sexual offenses who is not registered as sexual or violent sexual offender if the inmate contacts any former victims or the victims' immediate family members without the consent of the victim or the consent of a minor victim's parents. Authorizes exceptions for mail addressed to attorneys and courts.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumption:

- Placing a restriction on an inmate's outgoing mail will not have a fiscal impact on state or local government.
